"Learning how to better yourself in & out of the forces"

The New Event for forces personnel wanting advice on how to use their learning credits

The team from the National Armed Forces & Emergency Services Event now invite forces personnel and former personnel to Catterick Leisure Centre , North Yorkshire on Wednesday July 12, 2023.

For the first time an event has been put together solely for training providers offering courses to serving forces personnel, those in resettlement and ex-military wanting to utilise their ELC and SLC credits and improve their own continuous professional development, whether staying in or leaving the military.

The event will start at 0930 and last until 1300 - turn up at anytime between these hours.
